NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

New staff

The Institute is delighted to welcome Dr Amy Blakeway who is joining St Andrews from the University of Kent where she was Director of the Centre for Medieval and Early Modern Studies. Before this she held a Junior Research Fellowship at Homerton College, Cambridge, and the Fulbright-Robertson Visiting Professorship in British History. Amy is currently finishing a book on the Parliaments and Conventions of James V, and working on another book on the impact of the Rough Wooings on governance in Scotland. Her other main research interest is propaganda in Renaissance Scotland.

We are also delighted to announce the appointment of Ian Maclean as an Honorary Professor at St Andrews. Ian is Professor of Renaissance Studies and Fellow of All Souls College at the University of Oxford. His main research interests are in the fields of Montaigne; Girolamo Cardano; the history of the book in the late Renaissance; the history of law, medicine and theology in European universities; and Aristotelianism.

Congratulations to...

Jamie Cumby, for the successful completion of her PhD, 'The Compagnie des libraires and the Development of the Publishing Industry in Lyon: 1502-1562'.

Arthur der Weduwen, for the successful completion of his PhD, 'Selling the Republican Ideal. State Communication in the Dutch Golden Age'.

Jan Hillgärtner, for the successful completion of his PhD, 'The German Newspaper in its First Years of Existence'.
