NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

James K. Cameron Faculty Fellowship 2020-21

The Institute is pleased to announce a Cameron Faculty Fellowship for the academic year 2020-21. The Fellowship is open to any colleague in a faculty post with research interests in the field of early modern religious history. It covers the cost of accommodation for a semester in St Andrews (in a University-owned apartment) together with the costs of transportation to and from St Andrews from the holder's normal place of work. The Fellowship carries no teaching duties, though the fellow is expected to engage in the normal seminar life of the Institute. The Fellowship may be taken during either semester of the academic year (Sept. - Dec. or Feb. - May).

Candidates should apply by submitting to the Director, Professor Bridget Heal (bmh6@st-andrews.ac.uk), a CV together with the names of two academic referees and a plan of work for the proposed tenure of the fellowship. Closing date: 2 December 2019

Workshop, Churches and Warfare in Central Europe, C.17th – C.20th, St Andrews, 29-30 June 2020

This workshop will bring together scholars of German and Central European history to discuss the use and abuse of church buildings during times of war as well as their post-war restoration and reconstruction. The workshop's chronological scope will be broad, ranging from the Thirty Years War via the Napoleonic Wars to WW2. Speakers are invited to consider issues such as the ideological struggles that shaped seemingly prosaic decisions about the financing and control of reconstruction; the interplay of local and regional / national interests; the symbolic significance of rebuilding projects for particular groups. The discussion will be interdisciplinary, drawing on art and architectural history to highlight the importance of the aesthetic choices made during restoration and reconstruction. For further details contact Bridget Heal (bmh6@st-andrews.ac.uk).
