NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

Professor Bruce Gordon's visit as Cameron Faculty Fellow has been postponed until 2022, but we are delighted that Bruce will be able to join us virtually to give this year's Reformation Day Lecture, 'Boundaries of Memory: The Medieval Bible in the Early Modern World'. The lecture will take place on 5 November.

All our seminar papers during this academic year will be held online via MS Teams. We warmly invite participation from across the Reformation community. Please see the schedule on p.3 for details of how to join.

Congratulations to...

Jack Abernethy, on passing his MSt(Res) thesis on "'The Bulwark of the Republic?' The Scots-Dutch Brigade in the Second Half of the Eighty Years' War (1609-1648)'

Arthur der Weduwen on the award of a three-year British Academy Postdoctoral Fellowship, held in St Andrews. Arthur is working on 'The Culture of Catastrophe. The Dutch Republic and the Legacy of the Disaster Year, 1672-1748'.

Elise Watson, who has been awarded the 2019-20 Michael Kennedy Prize for Best Communication by the Ecclesiastical History Society for her paper on 'The Jesuitesses in the Bookshop: Catholic Lay Sisters' Participation in the Dutch Book Trade, 1650-1750'.

We are pleased to announce the publication of the following volumes in our St Andrews Studies in Reformation History series (<https://brill.com/view/serial/SASRH>):

- Kazimierz Bem, Calvinism in the Polish Lithuanian Commonwealth 1548-1648: The Churches and the Faithful (Leiden, 2020)
- Jessica Dalton, Between Popes, Inquisitors and Princes: How the First Jesuits Negotiated Religious Crisis in Early Modern Italy (Leiden, 2020)
- Chris Langley, Culture of Care: Domestic Welfare, Discipline and the Church of Scotland, c. 1600-1689 (Leiden, 2020)
- Aislinn Muller, The Excommunication of Elizabeth I: Faith, Politics, and Resistance in Post-Reformation England, 1570-1603 (Leiden, 2020)
