NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

All our seminar papers during this academic year are being held online via MS Teams. We warmly invite participation from across the Reformation community. Please see the schedule on p.3 for details of how to join.

The USTC History of the Book Conference on Gender and the Book Trade will take place online from 16-19 June 2021. Please see <https://www.ustc.ac.uk/conference> for details.

Bruce Gordon's 2020 Reformation Day lecture on "Boundaries of Memory: The Medieval Bible in the Early Modern World" is now available online at: <https://www.st-andrews.ac.uk/reformation/>

We are pleased to announce the publication of the following volumes in our St Andrews Studies in Reformation History series (<https://brill.com/view/serial/SASRH>):

- Nicholas A. Cumming, Francis Turretin (1623-87) and the Reformed Tradition (2020)
- Lucy R. Nicholas and Ceri Law, Roger Ascham and His Sixteenth-Century World (2020)

Congratulations to...

Jacob Baxter, who has won the Gray Postgraduate Prize for the best performance in an MLitt course in the Faculties of Arts and Divinity.

Nora Epstein, who has won a research support grant from the Paul Mellon Centre for Studies in British Art for her work on Visual Commonplacing: The Transmission and Reception of Printed Religious Images in Reformed England.

Chelsea Reutke, on the successful defence of her PhD, "Catholic Print Networks in Restoration England, 1660-1688".

Institute Members' News

Emily Betz presented a paper entitled "A Sixteenth-Century Clergyman and Physician: Timothy Bright's Dual Approach to Melancholia" at the Ecclesiastical History Society conference, "The Church in Sickness and in Health", in January.

Amy Blakeway has published: "Religious Reform, the House of Guise and the Council of Fontainebleau: The French Memorial Service for Marie de Guise, August 1560", Etudes Epistémè, 37 (2020), available here. She featured in BBC Radio Scotland's Time Travels, in episodes on 'Burning Questions' and 'Animal Magic' (discussing James V's parrot, amongst other things!).

In October, Bridget Heal spoke at York's CREMS on "Religion and Magic during the Thirty Years War" and gave the keynote lecture to the annual meeting of the Sixteenth Century Society & Conference on "Faith and Survival: Writing a Religious History of the Thirty Years War". She has published "Die Druckerpresse und die Macht der Bilder" in Lies (ed), Wahrheit - Geschwindigkeit - Pluralität: Chancen und Herausforderungen durch den Buchdruck im Zeitalter der Reformation (Göttingen: V&R, 2020).

Jaap Jacobs has published: Samuel van Hoogstraten's Introduction to the Academy of Painting; or, The Visible World, ed. Celeste Brusati, tr. Jaap Jacobs (Getty Research Center, LA, 2021).

Emily Michelson has published: Matthey Coneys Wainwright and Emily Michelson (eds), A Companion to Religious Minorities in Early Modern Rome (Leiden: Brill, 2020).

Bess Rhodes will join the School of Divinity's project on the coasts of Fife as spiritual and religious landscapes, alongside her ongoing work for Smart History.

Applications are invited...

For the following School of History M.Litt Programmes: M.Litt in Early Modern and Reformation History; M.Litt in Book History.
